1 beginning of the deposition the only ones you were
2 taking?

3 A I wasn't taking them then.

4 Q So you were on no medications at all, from September of
5 2017 until 2019?

6 A Nope.

7 Q Okay. None at all?

8 A No. I was pregnant a good majority of the time.

9 Q So from '17 to '19, no medications?

10 A No.

11 Q I am going to turn to, when you were working at Enright
12 Family Restaurants, you took a leave for a period;
13 correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q When was that?

16 A January of '19 to February of '19.

17 Q What was that leave for?

18 A I was pregnant.

19 Q Is that it?

20 A Under a lot of stress. I had just recently had a
21 miscarriage and a TIA.

22 Q So the leave from January '19 to February '19 was not
23 due to the miscarriage or TIA, but it was due to stress
24 you were under and pregnancy?

25 A Due to all of it. A miscarriage and a stroke can be

1           very stressful.

2     Q     Okay.

3     A     Along with the amount of stress I was under at work.

4     Q     Okay. So when was the miscarriage?

5     A     October 17th of 2018.

6     Q     When was the transient ischemic attack?

7     A     November 2nd.

8     Q     2018?

9     A     Yes.

10    Q     And then when did you find out you were pregnant?

11    A     Again?

12    Q     Right. You said that you were on leave from January of 13           '19 to February of '19, the first reason being because 14           you were pregnant. When did you find out that you were 15           pregnant then?

16    A     I found out I was pregnant December 14 -- December 12th
17           or the 14th of 2018.

18    Q     Okay. So in February of 2019, you requested to return
19           to work at Enright; is that correct?

20    A     I requested to return to work prior to my leave, yes --
21           my finished leave, yes.

22    Q     What do you mean? Explain that.

23    A     I was on leave until February 21st, and was terminated
24           February 17th.

25    Q     Right. So when you were terminated -- Before you were
